Press release

Andreas Wahlich new CEO of Venta Air Technologies

Since the beginning of this month, Andreas Wahlich is the new CEO of Venta Air Technologies. The 56-year-old from Münster, Germany took over the position at the manufacturer of air humidification and air cleaning equipment on July 1st 2020. He succeeds Fred Hitzler, who has been managing partner for many years and who will continue to be associated with the company in an advisory capacity.

Lastly, the graduate engineer for communications engineering was responsible for the European business of Ecovacs Robotics as General Manager Europe. Prior to this, he was Head of Sales and Marketing for Digital Imaging at Samsung Electronics. Other previous positions include Leica Camera AG and management positions at Sony Germany and Sony Europe. "I am very much looking forward to the task ahead of me," says Andreas Wahlich. "Air is esculent. This sentence shapes the company's self-image like no other and should also apply to our business activities in the future.

Venta Air Technologies, based in Weingarten in Baden-Württemberg, has been developing and selling air humidification and air cleaning equipment for indoor use in Germany for over 35 years. The group employs 120 people including subsidiaries in the USA, Switzerland, Austria and the Netherlands.
